Photographs from the world première of Nikolai Badinski's Violin Concerto No. 2, performed by Zhi-Jong Wang, Renchang Fu and the Xiamen Philharmonic Orchestra on 14 March 2014.

The composer on Zhi-Jong Wang's excellent performance:

With the successful and convincing realisation of the 42 years delayed world première of my lost Violin Concerto No. 2 – performed by the Shanghai violinist Zhi-Jong Wang and the Xiamen Philharmonic Orchestra under Renchang Fu – the young and extremely gifted soloist Zhi-Jong Wang has categorically confirmed a prediction that I made one year ago – that she is a star of tomorrow. Only that she already plays like a star.
